Winter

Winter is the cold and boring time of the year,

Everyone getting warm by the fire,

Munching on hot buns with hot chocolate,

The frost froze the windows of our home,

The rain flooded the streets,

As the wind goes, it blows

All the trees down,

People struggling to drive their cars

Through heavy rain and flooded streets,

But Christmas is near

With the sound of "Ho, Ho, Ho",

I would go and see if Santa was there

But I wouldn't dare!
