

THE BORN ASSASSIN

By Zaac Howard, Berkeley Vale Campus T.L.S.C.

One cold winter's morning on Friday the 11th February 1600 in Italy, a new assassin was born, his name was Kyro. He wasn't like a normal baby he could sprint at 3 years old and at 7 years old he could do parkour. When 10 years old he was using weapons, his parents didn't know what was going on with him, but his father did but didn't tell anyone. One Day he walking around the streets and this old man whispered "Kyro over here" and Kyro walked over. The old man said "Do you know why you have these skills of weapon fighting and parkour" Kyro said "no" then the old man said "because you are an assassin". Kyro thought to himself "what is an assassin" the old man said "it's when you can do crazy moves with weapons and you can also climb up high walls, climb onto house roofs and jump from roof to roof". The old man gave Kyro battle amour, assassin cloak, sword, knife, hookstaff and some medicine for bad wounds, then old man said "use it well, the assassins are counting on you" then the old man disappeared with the crowd of people. Kyro went back to his house and saw his parents dead on the floor Kyra got angry. Kyro was trying to find out who killed his parents he had no clue at all, but then he saw a letter on his father's desk and it said. Kyro I should have told you earlier but now you should know, Kyro you are an assassin I was an assassin at your age and I retired, I was ment to pass it on to you, but I didn't want to because I thought would have been to young but now you have grown up to be an assassin. There is a guy I know and he has always tried to kill me his name is Zora he has a good strong army you might have met an old man he will give you weapons and all other stuff to defeat Zora. Good luck son from dad.

Kyro got really really angry and tried to find Zora. When he got outside the front door he saw 5 of Zora's men, and Zora's men tried to kill Kyro but they didn't, Kyro killed the Zora's men. Kyro went on the roofs tops to find Zora and heard 2 of Zora's men talking about killing Kyro, so Kyro ran to a nearby river and started to cry. He was figuring out what to do to kill Zora but didn't know where to start. Kyro went around the streets listening to what Zora's men were saying, then finally one of Zora's men said he was in an underground lair, but the men didn't say were the underground lair was. It was the coldest day in winter now, it's snowing and Kyro had to hide in the streets to sleep and keep warm. It was 8am and Kyro got up from sleeping and went out to look for Zora. He checked for clues at the art gallery, at the blacksmiths, at the shops and at the church. Then he saw a button on a brick, he pressed it a found a passage way underground. Kyro followed the passage way and found a big, brown, rusty door which as guarded by at least 200 guards. Kyro didn't know what to do. He looked down to see a glinting light on his hand, so he followed the light to where the other assassins were signalling him. Then all the assassins jumped out and attacked the guards. Five assassins died in that battle, Zora heard the noise of swords clashing and got his brutes which were big armoured, strong men some with spears and others with giant axes. Zora had a good time to flee and he was long gone before the assassins finished killing the brutes. All the assassins left the underground lair and when Kyro got out the old man came back, Kyro said "hello" and the old man said "take this it's an bow and arrow, this would be good for roof top kills and long distance take downs" Kyro said "thanks" and then the old man disappeared into the shadows. Kyro went back to the assassin's lair to find that his elders were holding a meeting. The assassin leader said that Zora was heading to Rome, to regroup his army for a big battle against the assassins and Zora's army. So the assassin leader said we need to kill him before he attacks us. All the assassins went and tried to find Zora, but the assassin leader held back Kyro and said "this is the time for you to use that bow and arrow,make us assassins proud" Kyro looked and smiled then went off to find Zora. Kyro saw Zora in a carriage, he shot one arrow and missed and when he went for a second but a tree got in his way and didn't bother shooting and ran a shortcut way. Kyro looked for the carriage for ages, then he saw the other assassins surrounding the carriage, the assassin's through axes at the wheels, the back two wheels broke, when all the assassin's looked in the carriage there was no one there besides fruit and vegetables. All the assassin's were devastated and then Kyro saw another carriage so lighting an arrow on fire and shot it into the carriage, it was a direct hit. Kyro hit the carriage setting it on fire, Zora ran as fast but not fast enough. The assassin's caught him and took him back to the assassin's lair. The assassin leader didn't know what to do with him, he was thinking to prison him or kill him painfully. Zora said "you wont get away with this" then all of a sudden footsteps were sounded every assassin prepared for battle and Zora was kept for a hostage. There was about 3,500 of Zora's men and 150 brutes. All the assassin's were nervous that they were going to die, then all a sudden, all these pro archer assassin's shot, and all the assassin's charged for battle. And the battle began. The assassin leader got stabbed by a brute, all assassin's got angry a fought harder. Kyro went up against a big brute and almost got stabbed, Kyro then pulled his knife out, through it, and got the brute through the eye slot in the helmet, the brute was blinded by Kyro, then pulled out his sword and put it straight through the brutes strong armour and stabbed him, the brute died. Zora stated to get away, this was the time to use the bow and arrow, Kyro aimed and shot. The arrow hit Zora in the back, Kyro ran over. Zora said to Kyro "you haven't won yet" then Zora died. The assassin's held a ceremonial burial for the old leader. All assassin's applauded Kyro for killing Zora. Every assassin said that Kyro should be new leader.
