Jetty Beach

I love jetty beach
The water as blue as the sky
The sand as rough as sandpaper
And the sun as golden as honey
The clouds a soft fairy floss
As the wedge tail eagle flies
Close to the island
Hunting for fish

The people watch as the eagle dives
And sea turtles, dolphins, fish, birds, swimmers, stingrays, dugongs
With the barrels as round as black holes
The wedge like an eagle
With the king tide
As high as a tsunami
The jetty jumpers jump
As they fly through the sky
With the mullet, brims, flaties and jewies
Fly like a bird through the water

When the jumpers hit the water
The fish fly
As they see the wildlife
And the waves crashing like they're trying to sing
Whales doing underwater ballet
And the sun goes down
And the moon comes up
The day comes to an end
