"Things are not always what they seem"

When you think Aboriginal many think -
Dark skinned, tribal beings sitting around a campfire devouring native fauna.
Sharing Dreamtime stories in native tongue.
Dancing, singing, listening to the drone of the didgeridoo.
Are they the only Aboriginals walking the land?
Well no - you must not be mistaken!
Things are not always what they seem!
Like me!
My name is Tomislav yet my name does not define me!
I live in the suburbs yet that does not define me!
I eat like you yet that does not define me!
I hang out with many cultures yet that does not define me!
Many are not aware of my heritage -
I am a proud Aboriginal!
