

The Wild

By Kalei Hall, Year Two, Engadine Public School

I'm in the wild all alone, and I don't know where to go,
I hide in the crystal clear water to watch the fishermen row.
I had to leave my Mumma, when she stopped feeding me,
And now I'm swimming through the deep and darkest sea.
I teach myself to eat fish and krill,
And as I grow, I eat two tonnes each meal.
I needed some friends, so I joined a new pod,
I was hunted and I escaped, I think because of God.
I'm the biggest animal in the sea, and larger than most on land,
Some believe I once had legs, to walk upon the sand.
My front legs turned to flippers and my back legs went away,
Now with the fish, sharks, seahorses and the turtles I play.
I hope my Mumma will find me again one day,
But until then I'll grow up in the wild, and I'll learn to find my way.
